

Bruno Covas

Secretary for the Environment of the State of São Paulo, Brasil.

Bruno Covas is a lawyer, economist and Master in Public Administration. He is also Professor of Constitutional Law. In 2006, he was elected to the State Congress with the highest voting and considered the most active member of the legislature. In 2007-08 he chaired the Finance and Budget Committee and was the rapporteur of the State Budget for the years 2009-10. He authored more than 60 bills and supported more than 180, working with topics from Education to Administrative Responsibility, from tax reduction to subways, from copyrights to highfighting corruption.